Rabindranath Tagore

Rabindranath Tagore also written Ravīndranātha Ṭhākura (7 May 1861 – 7 August 1941), was a Bengali polymath who reshaped Bengali literature and music, as well as Indian art with Contextual Modernism in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. A Piralī Brahmin from Calcutta with ancestral gentry roots in Jessore, Tagore wrote poetry as an eight-year-old. At the age of sixteen, he released his first substantial poems under the pseudonym Bhānusiṃha ("Sun Lion"), which were seized upon by literary authorities as long-lost classics. By 1877 he graduated to his first short stories and dramas, published under his real name. His compositions were chosen by two nations as national anthems: India's Jana Gana Mana and Bangladesh's Amar Shonar Bangla. The Sri Lankan national anthem was inspired by his work.

Where the mind is without fear

“Where the mind is without fear
and the head is held high, where knowledge is free.

Where the world has not been broken up into fragments by narrow domestic walls.

Where words come out from the depth of truth,

where tireless striving stretches its arms toward perfection.

Where the clear stream of reason has not lost it's way into the dreary desert sand of dead habit.

Where the mind is led forward by thee

into ever widening thought and action.

In to that heaven of freedom, my father,

LET MY COUNTRY AWAKE!”

Rabindranath Tagore

Respect your Elders

An 80 year old man was sitting on the sofa in his house along with his 45 year old highly educated son. Suddenly a crow perched on their window.

The Father asked his Son, “What is this?”

The Son replied “It is a crow”. After a few minutes, the Father asked his Son the 2nd time, “What is this?”

The Son said “Father, I have just told you that it's a crow”.

After a little while, the old Father again asked his Son the 3rd time, 'What is this?' By this time, with slight irritation in his tone, he answered, “It's a crow, a crow”.

A little after, the Father again asked his Son the 4th time, “What is this?” This time the Son shouted at his Father, “Why do you keep asking me the same question again and again, although I have told you so many times 'IT IS A CROW'. Are you not able to understand this?”

A little later the Father went to his room and came back with an old tattered diary, which he had maintained since his Son was born. On opening a page, he asked his Son to read that page. When the son read it, the following words were written in the diary: “Today my little son aged three was sitting with me on the sofa, when a crow was sitting on the window. My Son asked me 23 times what it was, and I replied to him all 23 times that it was a Crow. I hugged him lovingly each time he asked me the same question again and again for 23 times. I did not feel irritated, but I rather felt affection for my innocent child”.

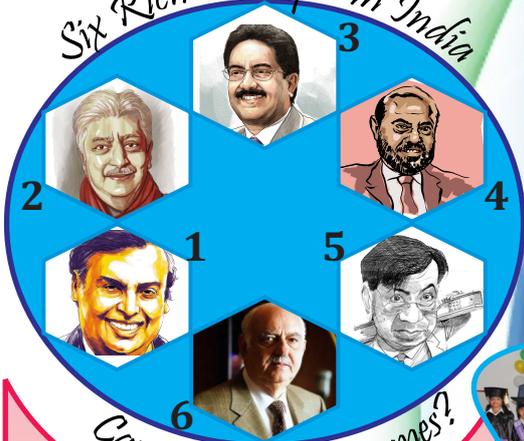

So, when your parents attain old age, do not be repulsed by them or look at them as a burden. Speak to them graciously, be cool, obedient, humble and kind to them. Be considerate to them, for they took excellent care of you when you were a child.

My mother is a woman like no other. She gave me life, nurtured me, taught me, dressed me, fought for me, held me, shouted at me, kissed me, but most importantly she loved me unconditionally. There are not enough words to describe just how important my Mother is to me, and what a powerful influence she continues to be.

Graduation Day

Kindergarten & Grade 5

The students of K-2 and Grade 5 graduated on 19th May 2018. The day itself reminded us all that we need to move ahead in life, whatever the circumstances are. When we move ahead, only then, we realize the ups and downs of life. The students of Kindergarten-2 and Grade 5 were all set to move to their new horizons, as they prepared themselves to face the challenges that might come in their way to achieve success. The environment became quite emotionally charged, when the toddlers came on stage and expressed their gratitude to their teachers, parents and all other staff members who directly or indirectly supported or guided them to graduate and learn the real lesson of life. The proud parents and teachers smiled and cheered for their little ones.

TIPS & TRICKS

- YouTube keyboard shortcuts If you thought using the spacebar to pause a YouTube video was effective, instead try using K for pausing, while J and L will step backward /forward 10 seconds. M works for mute. Super handy.
- Open the task manager directly if you want to bypass the interrupt that happens when pressing Ctrl + Alt + Del and jump right to the task manager, hitting Ctrl + Shift + Esc will launch it directly.
- Bring up the system information window. Just press Windows + Pause/Break and the System Information panel will be ready to launch.
- Automatically add www. and .com to a URL You can shave off a couple of seconds typing in a URL by simply click Ctrl + Enter after you type the name of the site. Need .net instead of .com? Press Ctrl + Shift + Enter instead.
- Scroll through pages with the spacebar Tapping the spacebar on a website will scroll down in full page chunks and hitting shift + space will take you backup.
- Lock your computer if you are sick of your "friends" going onto your computer at work or home and posting things on your Facebook/Twitter page on your behalf. It's certainly an annoyance, but an easy one to prevent. Windows + L will lock your system right away, requiring a password (if you've set one) to log in again.

WONDERLA

BARBEQUE NATION

13th May 2018 (Sunday) was the day all boarders of SNIS were eagerly waiting for. We all were so excited that we planned in advance what we are going to do once we reach WonderLa and what are we going to eat at Barbeque Nation. We boarded the bus exactly at 7:15am with a pack of snacks in our hand which heightened our excitement. We reached WonderLa around 9:15am and then at 10:30am, we entered the amusement park. We went for number of rides like Termite Ride, Rollar Coaster etc. At 12 pm the water park opened we were all ready to jump in the pools due to extremely hot weather. We enjoyed a lot and left Wonder La at 4:30pm hoping to visit again. Then we reached Barbeque Nation at 6:30pm and we ate starters, tasty food, desserts and lots of ice-cream. Finally, we celebrated the birthdays of Lakhan and Lakshya and we departed for school around 8:30pm, we were in campus at 9:30pm. Thanks to all for organizing such a beautiful outing. We are looking forward for many such outings in future.
